
Community and Natural Resources Development Association (CNRDA)

CNRDA is...

A professional association for Natural Resources, Community & Economic Development Extension staff

Mission Statement

To encourage excellence in educational programs, processes, research, and technical assistance through the exchange of ideas and methods, collaboration, and professional development of members to benefit communities.

Membership Goals

- ◆ Quality professional development opportunities
- ◆ Recognition for outstanding achievement in education, research and outreach
- ◆ Representation with MSUE administration and other agencies and organizations
- ◆ Networking, sharing and mentoring opportunities with others in CNRDA-related specializations

CNRDA Areas of Expertise

- ◆ Community Development
- ◆ Economic Development
- ◆ Land Use
- ◆ State & Local Government
- ◆ LeadNet (Leadership Network)
- ◆ Forestry
- ◆ Fisheries & Wildlife
- ◆ Tourism
- ◆ Water Quality

Current Membership Statistics

27 paid members for 2007 (as of April 2007)

Annual dues: $70.00, or $55.00 if a member of another MCEA association (additional $5 off if a member of an affiliated national association*)

*CNRDA is jointly affiliated with two national associations:

Association of Natural Resource Extension Professionals (ANREP)

National Association of Community Development Extension Professionals (NACDEP)

