MSU Extension Community Resource and Development Association 2nd ANNUAL MEETING

- Welcome
- Presentation of CRDA Awards
- Election of 2004-5 Board members
- Other business that may legitimately come before the organization.

CRDA Mission

- The Mission of the Michigan State University Extension Community Resource Development Association is to encourage excellence in educational programs, processes, research, and technical assistance through the exchange of ideas and methods, collaboration, and professional development of members to benefit communities.

CRDA Purpose

- To provide quality professional development opportunities for members.
- To create a reward and recognition structure for excellence in education, research, technical assistance and outreach in the Community and Economic Development and Natural Resource areas of expertise.
- To provide representation for CRDA members with MSU Extension Administration and other agencies and organizations within and outside of Michigan State University.
- To affiliate with The Community Development Society and/or other national organizations, which provide support for CRDA, as determined from time to time.
- To provide opportunities for members to network, share and mentor others engaged in similar educational, research, technical assistance and outreach activities.
