

Save the Date ~ August 18, 2009

Date: August 18, 2009

Time: 9:00 am ~ 2:45 pm

Location: University Center, Gaylord, MI.

Cost: $10:00 with preregistration or $15 at the door; includes lunch.

Who should attend?

Mid to late career campus and field based educators and faculty.

Why you should attend?

Learn up-to-date information on:

- Optimizing your retirement options.
- Financial aspects of retirement.
- MSU benefits.
- Exploring civic engagement.

Registration: Go to this website <http://web2.canr.msu.edu/inservice/coursetitle.cfm> and choose course #6764.

Retirement Planning... Will I have Enough to Retire?

Presented by

Epsilon Sigma Phi and MSU Extension-North Region

AM~ 9— 11:30

Benefits, retirement and investment strategies for mid to late career educators.

~ Presenters include ~

Michigan State University Human Resource and TIAA-CREF

11:30 to 12:30 ~ Lunch Provided

PM~ 12:30—2:45

Social aspects of retirement followed by a panel of retirees who will share their experiences and answer general questions including the Federal Retirement System.

~ Presenters include ~

Michigan State University Family Resource Center and Retirees

Future Retirement Workshops:

- At Fall Conference for new, mid and late career educators.
- In February 2010, this workshop will be repeated on the MSU campus.

